But now that you have been set free from sin and have become slaves of God, the fruit you get leads to sanctification and its end, eternal life. Romans 6:22

As often happens, this passage follows well the previous day's reflection. We are free from sin because of the Blood of the Lamb. We willingly accept the yoke of the children of God. That is a choice we make. Sin is often less a choice than a happenstance. We can definitely choose to sin but it is often in the heat of the moment and is not so much a choice as it is a habit. We can choose to be free of those habits. This requires the grace of God to allow us to do so. That is what accepting the yoke of God's love is all about – surrendering to His grace.
