The LORD your God is in your midst,
a mighty one who will save;
he will rejoice over you with gladness;
he will quiet you by his love;
he will exult over you with loud singing. Zephaniah 3:17

This verse appears in the middle of a telling of the tale of woe for Israel. But it is not the end. God is in the midst of His people and brings peace and rejoicing. This is set a short while before the Babylonian exile. But the end of the story for the prophet is that Jerusalem will be restored. We know that it is true but we see in it a sign pointing to the new and eternal Jerusalem which is founded and washed clean in the Blood of the Lamb.
