Be not quick in your spirit to become angry, for anger lodges in the heart of fools. Ecclesiastes 7:9

The country has been so angry. We need to get a grip. We need to put aside partisan bitterness. If we do not, we cannot possibly achieve the goal that the Founding Fathers set for us – a society with liberty and justice for all. Yes, our understanding of what that means has changed over time but we cannot give up on that dream. And anger is the easiest way to derail that dream.
