

Deacon's Beacons

November 5, 2020

“Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.”

Matthew 18:5–6

Everyone knows that we are responsible for the welfare of our children. But our responsibility goes beyond their physical wellbeing. We are responsible for forming them into good adults with a proper conscience. At some point, we cannot control what our children think or what they choose to do. All that we can do is to plant the seed, water and feed it regularly and carefully and let the rest up to God.
