

Deacon's Beacons

November 13, 2020

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. 1 Corinthians 13:4–6

Maybe one of St. Paul's most famous lines, this is often a reading at a wedding. This talks about the true nature of love. Weddings are about hearts and flowers; love goes much deeper than that. But, as I always remind the grooms, do not forget the hearts and flowers as well. Flowers fade. Love endures.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
