

Deacon's Beacons

November 20, 2020

“In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’” Acts 20:35

Do you consider the impact of something on your pocketbook or on the people around you? We are called as Christians to look beyond ourselves and to work – and fight at times – for the other. For the person who does not look like us or speak like us or even believe like us. Remember that when Jesus was asked about who is my neighbor when He set out the Greatest Commandments, He immediately made the hero a Samaritan. A Samaritan! The most hated people in the Jewish world. Yet Jesus shows that the Samaritan understood compassion to one not like him. We have to do the same thing. This is not optional.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike