

Deacon's Beacons

December 3, 2020

Or do you not know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you, whom you have from God? You are not your own, for you were bought with a price. So glorify God in your body. 1 Corinthians 6:19–20

Many say that their bodies belong to them and they can do whatever they want. Of course, the most blatant example of this is abortion. They deny the personhood of the child and only worry about themselves. But this passage expands what our “rights” to our own bodies mean. If we are temples of the Holy Spirit, we must treat that temple with respect and honor. We should never be doing something contrary to that regardless of how much pleasure it may bring.
