

Deacon's Beacons

December 9, 2020

He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For by him all things were created, in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things were created through him and for him.
Colossians 1:15–16

This is a creedal statement. It goes beyond simple praise. This proclaims that Jesus is both the firstborn of all Creation and the author of Creation. This clearly identifies Jesus as God. A friend of mine said that this was, in his opinion, one of the most important passages in all of Scripture. If anyone doubts what we believe about Jesus, point them to this passage.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
