And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. John 1:14

There is the heart of the season. The Word became flesh. John does not tell us any more about the origin of Jesus. For him, that is enough. We know what Luke tells us. Matthew tells a different version. Which is true? Both are. There is a difference between truth and fact. Scripture tells us truth but it may not always be factual. It is still true. The bottom line is that each is telling us one essential truth. Jesus is the Messiah. Luke and Matthew both tells us how w man from Nazareth can be the Messiah who was to be born in Bethlehem. Simply accept the fact and wrap yourself in the truth in whatever manner you like best. (I may preach more on this on Christmas Eve.)
