

Deacon's Beacons

February 6, 2020

For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. Philippians 1:21

We know this. It is part of our faith and our Catholic culture. But it does not make things any easier when the death of a loved one occurs. I can tell you from experience that hearing "they are in a better place" has a hollow ring to it when you are hurting. But faith is not only when things are going well. True faith holds out even in the face of a storm. In the end, we know that this life is transitory. The only thing that lasts is God.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
