“I tell you, on the day of judgment people will give account for every careless word they speak, for by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.” Matthew 12:36–37

Words are powerful things. They can be weapons to destroy. They can also be healing balms to soothe and lift up. It all depends on how they are used. Before you speak, you must always weigh what it is that you will say. You will never be able to take those words back, at least not fully.
