

Deacon's Beacons

February 25, 2020

Beware lest you say in your heart, 'My power and the might of my hand have gotten me this wealth.' You shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your fathers, as it is this day. Deuteronomy 8:17–18

This reinforces one of the reflections from last week. It is, however, far more specific. All good gifts come from God. Even how we use those gifts can be a gift from God. The bottom line is this: God is God and you are not. Keep that in mind.
