

Deacon's Beacons

March 6, 2020

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Philippians 2:5–8

If God Himself would humble Himself to serve the people, why should any of us balk at the notion? If you say that you walk in the footsteps of Christ, that better mean that you pour your life out in service to everyone. That means no picking and choosing. It means everyone. Are you willing to do that? Are you willing to take up THAT cross? Spend this Lent praying for a spirit of openness and do not exclude anyone.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
