Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Philippians 2:5–8

If God Himself chose to humble Himself to become one of us, why do you think you are any better? You are not God. God is God. When you assume that you are in complete control of your life and your situation, God will show you the folly of your ways. This is not done out of spite but it is a natural outcome of us not knowing God's will and trying to do it our way. Learn obedience to God's will. That is the path to peace.
