

Deacon's Beacons

March 30, 2020

But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not gratify the desires of the flesh. For the desires of the flesh are against the Spirit, and the desires of the Spirit are against the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to keep you from doing the things you want to do. Galatians 5:16–17

If you do not separate yourself from the desires of the flesh, you will never escape them. This means that you must be on guard against entertainment and even company at times that will draw you back in. It is a constant struggle since we live in the world of flesh and maybe even more so in our modern world where nothing is deemed wrong and everything is based on what the individual wants to do. This is Original Sin in its most naked form (excuse the pun). This is wanting to be God Himself. God tells us what is right and what is wrong through Natural Law. We need to heed His direction.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike