

Deacon's Beacons

April 2, 2020

So whether we are at home or away, we make it our aim to please him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may receive what is due for what he has done in the body, whether good or evil. 2 Corinthians 5:9–10

When your time comes to approach that judgment seat, give thanks for the Blood of the Lamb that was poured out to wash away our sins. Without that, such an experience would end in sadness and despair. But because of it, we can be assured of the mercy of God. As we approach Holy week, even though our experience will be different than any we can remember, our joy will be complete in this great love.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
