“Ask, and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened.” Matthew 7:7–8

What are you praying for? Safety from this virus? Protection for your loved ones? A miraculous cure? Maybe many of those prayers are being answered. Why would it have to be a great display of glory? Look around you. Families are reconnecting. People are concerned about someone other than themselves. And there are miraculous occurrences. Ask yourselves this: Did you ever believe that the government would tell you to stay safely at home? Did you really even consider that schools could close and the world would continue? There are small miracles happening every day. Yes, times are hard and people are suffering , physically, emotional and financially. But there are positives to see in how we as a people are responding to this crisis.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
