

Deacon's Beacons

April 14, 2020

Whoever says "I know him" but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him, but whoever keeps his word, in him truly the love of God is perfected. By this we may know that we are in him: whoever says he abides in him ought to walk in the same way in which he walked. 1 John 2:4–6

This is an all or nothing proposition. You cannot choose when it is convenient to be a Christian. You either are a follower of Jesus or you are not. You are not a Christian only while you are at Church. You have to continue to be a Christian at all times under all circumstances. But that does not mean that you have to be dour. Your faith should fill you with joy. It should not feel like a straight jacket.
