“For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”
Matthew 12:50

Family can be defined in different ways. The most common way is by blood relationship. But many times we are closer to others with whom we do not share blood. One of those ways is through our faith. We are all children of God. And if we are faithful children, we share a common bond. That is what defines family after all. Embrace your fellow believers as sisters and brothers. We all have one Father.
