

Deacon's Beacons

April 25, 2020

I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Romans 12:1

Someone who does not understand our faith could look at this and say that St. Paul is advocating human sacrifice. But what he is talking about here is a different type of sacrifice. He is talking about laying down one's life for others. Another way to look at this is that, to make God wholly present in this world, we must be His hands and feet.

Resurrexit sicut dixit!
