

Deacon's Beacons

April 10, 2020

“Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.” Matthew 6:19–21

What are you really working for? A better home? A fancier car? A more extravagant vacation? That you should be working for is a place in the Kingdom of God. If that is not your primary focus, then you will not be truly happy. People today are worried about losing their homes, their cars, their livelihoods. But we are being forced to look inward. We are being forced to spend time with our own thoughts. Are you pleased with what you are seeing? If not, there will be no better time to change. After all, many of the world's distractions have been removed. Thanks be to God.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike