“Are not five sparrows sold for two pennies? And not one of them is forgotten before God. Why, even the hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not; you are of more value than many sparrows.” Luke 12:6–7

If God values even the birds of the air and you are more valuable than any bird, according to what Jesus said, then why would you doubt your own worth? In the same way, why would you doubt the worth of someone else? Treat all people that you encounter with an acknowledgement of their basic human dignity. It is not a matter of the color of their skin or where their ancestors came from or even what their abilities are. All people are of value and all people must be honored.
