

Deacon's Beacons

June 11, 2020

For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, "Abba! Father!" Romans 8:15

"Father" is not an adequate translation of "Abba." Referring to your father as "Father" implies a formality that lacks affection. Abba is much closer to our use of "Daddy." It invokes a true connection at the soul level. That is the very relationship that God wants with each of us. He stands ready waiting for you. It is your move.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
