

Deacon's Beacons

June 17, 2020

Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, rooted and built up in him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.
Colossians 2:6–7

Who taught you about the faith? Maybe your parents or grandparents. Maybe a teacher or catechist. Maybe just a friend full of the Holy Spirit and willing to share. Whoever it was, thank that person from your heart. Those who went before us in faith are responsible for our faith being planted, watered and fed. Without that commitment, the faith would have died out. Do you share that commitment? In today's world, faith seems to be deemed irrelevant. But nothing could be farther from the truth. Our faith provides a moral compass, consolation in sadness and strength in troubled times. A world without faith would self-destruct in a few generations. Do not let that happen on your watch.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike