

Deacon's Beacons

June 30, 2020

When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
and through the rivers, they shall not overwhelm you;
when you walk through fire you shall not be burned,
and the flame shall not consume you. Isaiah 43:2

It is important that you know what the preceding verse says in order to understand and appreciate this verse more fully. In the first verse of Isaiah 43, the Lord says "I have called you by name and you are Mine." If you belong to God, He will not leave you abandoned. Not only that, He called you specifically by your name. If you do not have a personal relationship with God, it is not because He has not tried. He has called you and chosen you by name. Have you done the same thing for Him?
