

Deacon's Beacons

July 9, 2020

“In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’” Acts 20:35

If everyone did this and lived by these words, the world would be a far better place. But just because everyone does not do it, that does not excuse you from doing so. Each of us is responsible for how we treat other people. Maybe our example will influence others to be more kind and compassionate. All that we would have to lose is what we ought to be doing anyway.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
