

Deacon's Beacons

July 17, 2020

Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life; whoever does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of God remains on him. John 3:36

Notice the wording here. Many may argue that if you do not accept Jesus, you cannot be saved. But what about those billions of people who never heard about Jesus? Are they automatically condemned? What about all those who lived before Jesus? Should they lose salvation through no fault of their own? What about babies who die before being baptized? If you think that God would condemn the innocent just because they did not belong to a special club, then I pity your concept of God. God wants all people to be saved. That is why He gave us Jesus. The efficacy of the Blood of Jesus is not limited to our human constraints. God is greater than all else.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike