

Deacon's Beacons

July 22, 2020

Have this mind among yourselves, which is yours in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not count equality with God a thing to be grasped, but emptied himself, by taking the form of a servant, being born in the likeness of men. And being found in human form, he humbled himself by becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross. Philippians 2:5–8

This is the first part of the great Philippians hymn. It tells us what we are supposed to do. Some may read it and say that this is what Jesus did for us. But that is not the whole story. What Jesus did for us is what we must do for others. This is the model of a sacrificial servant. Are you really ready to follow Jesus and do what He asks of you? That is the only way to be worthy of the name Christian.
