

Deacon's Beacons

July 27, 2020

But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, he saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness, but according to his own mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewal of the Holy Spirit, whom he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, so that being justified by his grace we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life. Titus 3:4–7

This reinforces the fact that we are saved by the grace of God and not by what we do. That does not give us license to do whatever we want. Grace saves us but we must accept that grace and conform our lives to what God wants for us. We will not be perfect. God knows our fallen nature. But He expects us to try to do better. That is the effect of the grace that He pours out on us through the Holy Spirit.
