

Deacon's Beacons

August 12, 2020

And he said, "Naked I came from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD." Job 1:21

We bring nothing into the world except what God has given us: our talents, our abilities, even our lives. When we return to God, we cannot take anything with us except the fruits of those gifts. And those fruits are not tangible. What did you do to make another's life better? What did you do to care for someone? What did you do in the face of injustice? Those are the fruits that follow us on our journey home to God.
