

Deacon's Beacons

August 13, 2020

But you, O LORD, are a shield about me, my glory, and the lifter of my head. Psalm 3:3

God is our shield in a world that throws all type of...junk at us. If we are to withstand the barrage of insults, accusations and general mean spirited jabs, we have to rely on God. St. John tells us that the world does not know us because it did not know God. Today it is not usually the case that people do not know about God. Most of them have simply chosen to believe that God does not matter to them. Part of that is from an increasing secularization of the world but part of it is our fault. Have you stood up and boldly proclaimed your faith in God? Have you tried to convince nonbelievers about God? Have you done it with compassion and love? If we do not tell others about how great our God is, who is going to do it?

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
