Whoever trusts in his riches will fall, but the righteous will flourish like a green leaf. Proverbs 11:28

We spend our lives gathering possessions. So much “stuff” surrounds us. Is it all really necessary? It is absolutely not wrong to have nice things. But if the things become an end unto themselves, we are on the road to sin. This Proverb mentions a green leaf. Jesus talked about the flowers and the glory of their appearances. Nature relies on God for its beauty. Why can we not do the same?
