Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.
Hebrews 11:1

If you are looking for proof of the existence of God, you are missing the point. You will get the proof you seek but not in this life. Here and now, we must rely on faith. That is believing when there is not hard empirical evidence. You are invited by God into a relationship that relies on faith. You are saved by faith. Faith is the core of the true human soul. Unfortunately, too many people today require proof rather than faith.
