“Come now, let us reason together, says the LORD:
though your sins are like scarlet,
they shall be as white as snow;
though they are red like crimson, they shall become like wool.” Isaiah 1:18

We know our sins are terrible. We know that we have offended God. But unlike us, God is willing to forgive if we are sorry. The stain of our sin is washed away through the Blood of the Lamb. The very image of the Passover by which the Israelites escaped death is the same image that presents us with eternal life. God has the power to forgive our sins. And God has the love with which to do so.
