

Deacon's Beacons

January 8, 2021

“But it shall not be so among you. But whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
Mark 10:43–45

When I was ordained, a friend created some letterhead for me with the latter part of this passage. Unfortunately, I used it up and neglected to make more. But it is a stark reminder of what I have accepted. But while my role as deacon is guided by this, so too should our lives as Baptized members of the Body of Christ. Christians are here to serve. If you are doing anything else in your walk of faith, you really need to reassess your priorities.
