

Deacon's Beacons

January 20, 2021

And let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works, not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day drawing near. Hebrews 10:24–25

The New American Bible translation is more clear. It specifically says staying away from the assembly. So what this is saying is that we need to come together in worship so that we can all share one purpose. Of course, with a large parish, this is physically not possible. Adding COVID, our numbers are even more limited. But that does not stop us from gathering either virtually or in the gathering of prayer so that we can lift each other up, support each other in our needs and pray for the good of all.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
