"Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes has eternal life." John 6:47

Out of context, this verse could take on a much broader interpretation. But this is part of the Bread of Life Discourse. What Jesus is referring to here is the Real Presence in the Eucharist. The very next verse states, "I AM the Bread of Life." Not only is Jesus saying that He is God (I AM being the Name of God) but that His body is true food. So it is not enough to just believe in Jesus, we must believe what He told us and what He left us in the Eucharist.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
