

Deacon's Beacons

And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. 1 Peter 5:10

We can read this in two ways. The first and most obvious is that it refers to the suffering of earthly life and the reward of eternal life in Heaven. But you could also see in it a promise of better things to come through the blessings of God as we move through difficult times. Either way, we cannot become discouraged when things are not easy. Remember that God promises better times and He will not lie.
