Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and perform your vows to the Most High,
and call upon me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me." Psalm 50:14–15

We are so ready to go to God when we need help. How often do we stop to say thank you for the blessings that we have received? It is not that God will withhold blessings because we are not properly grateful but it is just wrong to continue to ask without saying thank you. Our parents taught us that early on. We learned it in school as well. Why do we think it does not apply to our relationship with God? Give thanks to God for what He has given you before all else.
