

Deacon's Beacons

October 8, 2021

For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God. 2 Corinthians 5:21

Taking our sin upon Himself, God paid the price for us. In this way, we are made righteous. It is not of our own merit that this happens. But once we accept that, we have a responsibility to cooperate with the grace of God by converting our lives. We are not saved by our works but our works show our commitment to the faith that we profess. While we are still sinful, we have an obligation to try to do better, to avoid the sins that burden us down.
