“Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and perform your vows to the Most High,
and call upon me in the day of trouble;
I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me.” Psalm 50:14–15

If you do not give thanks to God for the blessings that you have received, why should you ask for more? That is not to say that God will not continue to bless you even if you do not but it seems rather ungrateful and downright impolite to not first give thanks. God's love is not conditioned by our behavior; it is unconditional. First and foremost, we should be thankful that His love is not based on our worthiness.

On a personal note, I was out a few days because I felt ill on Sunday and we have to be careful. But all is well.
