All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, equipped for every good work. 2 Timothy 3:16–17

Scripture is the Living Word of God. Through it, we can learn more about God and His desires for each of us. But Scripture does not answer all of our questions. Much of what we believe must be drawn out of what we see in Scripture. Many of our understandings have been formed by Church Councils who pondered, led by the Holy Spirit, on a particular subject or aspect of Scripture. That is what we, as Catholics, call Tradition. That is what allows us to express our faith more fully.
