

Deacon's Beacons

March 4, 2021

And now I commend you to God and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. Acts 20:32

Here Paul is speaking to the presbyters of Ephesus at Miletus. This is presented by Luke as Paul's Last Will and Testament. It would seem to be a fitting parting statement in any case. Commending someone to God is the very best that we can do for them. It is God Who is the source of all blessings. Remembering others in prayer is an ultimate act of Christian charity. Do it often. It costs nothing. The return for those for whom you pray is immeasurable.

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.
