

Deacon's Beacons

March 9, 2021

Blessed is the man
who walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners,
nor sits in the seat of scoffers;
but his delight is in the law of the LORD,
and on his law he meditates day and night.

He is like a tree
planted by streams of water that yields its fruit in its season,
and its leaf does not wither.
In all that he does, he prospers. Psalm 1:1–3

This begins the Book of Psalms. It sets a tone for how we should live. It tells us that we need to delight in the law of the Lord rather than the ways of the wicked. That law of God will be like a spring that nourishes the surrounding plants and trees. It keeps us going when the heat is on. Seek the refreshment and nourishment of God's Word and Law often to keep yourself focused and prepared for life.
