Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Romans 5:1

I am pretty sure we have discussed this before. But it does bear repeating. We are justified by faith. There is no question about that. We cannot earn justification or salvation. It is a gift freely given by God through the blood of Jesus. Even though there had been tension between the Catholic Church and Reformation tradition Churches, this has always been the case. What we go on to say, though, based on the Epistle of James, is that our faith must have action as well. Otherwise it is dead. Faith in action makes Christ present to the world. Just talking about Him and doing nothing tangible to make Him real will not get the job done.
