

Deacon's Beacons

Therefore God has highly exalted him and bestowed on him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father. Philippians 2:9–11

This was part of Sunday's readings for Palm Sunday. It reminds us that exaltation is not part of being Christian. If Jesus humbled Himself and then told us to follow Him, we must also be humble. God is the One who exalts. He did so for Jesus through the Resurrection and He promises us that same exaltation through our entry into eternal life. That exaltation comes at a cost. We do not gain eternal life without submitting to Christ.
