“Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives do I give to you. Let not your hearts be troubled, neither let them be afraid.” John 14:27

This is the second time in the 14th Chapter of John’s Gospel that Jesus tells His disciple “Do not let your hearts be troubled.” This is part of the Last Supper Discourses and immediately precedes the Passion. Jesus is granting them His peace at a time they will need it most, even though they do not know that yet. Jesus also tells them to be not afraid. That phrase repeats many time in the Scriptures. Regardless of what you are facing, do not be afraid and do not be troubled. God is with you. Give Him the time to act.
