

Deacon's Beacons

April 27, 2021

“Beware of practicing your righteousness before other people in order to be seen by them, for then you will have no reward from your Father who is in heaven.” Matthew 6:1

We do what is right not to win the praises of others but because it is right. We should need no other reason. Yes, what we do should reflect our faith and point others to God. Maybe it should raise questions in their minds about why we would do something that does not bring us any profit. Maybe that will break the cycle of selfishness. Doing those things for the selfish reason of being noticed and praised flies directly into the face of trying to erase selfishness.

Resurrexit sicut dixit!

Go raibh síocháin Chríost a bheith in éineacht leat.

Deacon Mike