“Whoever receives one such child in my name receives me, but whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better for him to have a great millstone fastened around his neck and to be drowned in the depth of the sea.”

Matthew 18:5–6

Our example is important. We may not think about it but if we are leading others astray by our behavior, we are causing them to sin. This is particularly pertinent when we are talking about children. At Baptisms, I always remind parents and godparents that talking to your child about being a Christian is one thing but they will learn more about what it to be a Christian by watching what it is that you do.
