“Whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”
Matthew 23:12

What we think of ourselves is not important. Even what others think of us is irrelevant. What is important is what God thinks of us. God will exalt the one who finds favor with Him. Blowing your own horn is just noise. People will recognize that. Living close to God and reflecting that relationship in how we live our lives will be recognized by those around us. That is what counts; not being recognized but providing good example to others.
